- Grant doesn't have one yet (don't wear that jacket deni not leather)
- Maddie and Jayden need pants with their cop costumes.

Notes:

- Maddie and Calleigh project more and use more diction; talk with more confidence
- Liz don't say sorry; just keep going
- Lyle, be careful on page 25. good job always staying in character
- Julian, trust yourself; leave in character and stay in character
- Brookie page 30-31 go over again
- Calleigh make sure your cue is faster or adjust if someone misses a line Pg.32-33
- To all: Careful of stage lights and facial expressions; don't squint eyes
- Be careful of forming lines; make a good stage picture or make a magic triangle
- Don't fully turn heads; cheat them out pg. 34-35
- Stay backstage even if you have one line
- Lyle watch the cue on pg 44, 45, 46, also try not to get squeaky when your voice gets higher
- Landon pick up cue faster and careful on line pg. 44-45.
- Danny careful of hands moving; be intentional
- Don't forget shoes tomorrow
- Make sure to not walk on stage or leave stage when needed
- Remember if you're on stage to always be in character, especially on pg. 56 just before everyone wilts.
- Audience plants always stay in character; you're part of the cast too.
- Make sure in the ending scene that everyone shouldn't be dying at the same time. Some live longer than others.
- Lilly make sure your reacting to the mosters dying
- Faster with cues at the end with the stright line on stage the medal and promotion scene.
- Awesome Grant and Evelyn with the line delivery at the end
- Stay in character with facial expressions when bowing. Hailly and Roan very good
- Make sure to turn on the eyes when intended to.

Tech:

- Try and keep the spotlight steady
- Fix curtain in back so the door light doesn't poke through

- Make sure to put someone in charge of opening the side doors at the end
